HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery.

The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomachic derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, and ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the States, South America, and Germany.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

At 11½ the Senate, under a dispensation of the rules, took the orders of the day.

A bill to amend the charters of the several banks of the State of Kentucky, was taken up and is as follows:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That it shall and may be lawful for the banks of issue in the State of Kentucky, on the — day of — 1861, to re-issue, in bank notes of denominations not less than one nor more than fifty dollars, the sum of four millions of dollars, redeemable in gold or silver at the expiration of two years from and after the date of such re-issue; the amount aforesaid to be issued by the following named banks, in proportion to the capital stock actually taken and paid in, to-wit: the Commercial Bank, the Southern Bank, the People's Bank, the Bank of Louisville, the Bank of Kentucky, the Farmers' Bank, the Northern Bank, and the Bank of Ashland.

2. That the re-issue aforesaid shall be duly made known, and designating by writing or stamping on the face of each bank note, "Re-issued this, the — day of — 1861," and countersigned by the cashier of said bank.

3. That it shall be the duty of the aforesaid banks, within three months after the — day of — 1861, to loan the citizens of each of the ten Congressional districts, upon new accommodations, in sums of not more than one thousand dollars to each individual applicant, to be repaid in calls of not more than ten per cent. upon the original amount loaned for the two first one hundred and twenty days the said loan shall run, and not more than twenty per cent. for each one hundred and twenty days it may afterwards run, an amount not less than four hundred thousand dollars to each of the Congressional districts in the State of Kentucky: Provided, That if there should not be suitable and satisfactory applications for the amount to which any district may be entitled before the first day of July next, then the said banks may lend in larger sums than one thousand dollars: And provided further, That if said banks fail to make the loans herein provided for, within the time stated, for the want of proper and satisfactory applications therefor, then the said banks shall have the benefit of the provisions of this act, in case they shall make the loans aforesaid to the amount named in the year 1861.

4. It shall be the duty of the Commercial Bank and the Bank of Ashland to make the said loans in districts one and nine; and it shall be the duty of the Southern Bank and the People's Bank to make said loans in districts two and three; it shall be the duty of the Bank of Kentucky and Bank of Louisville to make said loans in districts four, five, and seven; it shall be the duty of the Farmers' Bank and Northern Bank to make said loans in districts six, eight, and ten.

5. That it shall be the duty of said banks, in making the loans herein provided for, to divide the sum going to each district among the several counties composing such district, in proportion to the number of voters in each county respectively, as near as may be: Provided, That if there be not good and satisfactory applications from any county for the full amount to which such county is entitled within ninety days from the 1st of March, 1861, then said banks may lend the remainder of the share of such county to citizens of other counties in the same district.

6. That it shall be the duty of the president and directors of the banks aforesaid to make known to the Governor of this Commonwealth, within — days from the date of this act, whether or not they accept the provisions thereof, and undertake to make the loans as herein required; and in the event that one half of said banks agree to and do accept the provisions of this act, add will undertake to make the loans aforesaid to all of the districts in the State, this act shall be binding and obligatory as to such banks thus accepting the provisions of this act, to the same extent and manner as if accepted by all.

7. Be it further enacted, That the re-issue provided for in this act, when made conformable thereto, shall be taken and received in payment and discharge of all dues and demands to and from the State of Kentucky.

Mr. ALEXANDER moved to fill blanks in the first and second sections with "March 1, 1861," to add to the third section of the bill, "provided if any person fails to pay the calls the bank be authorized to sue for the amount owing," and to add to the bill, "this act shall be in force from its passage," all of which were adopted.

Mr. GLENN moved to amend by striking out $1,000 in the 3d section of the bill and insert $500.

Mr. PENNEBAKER moved to insert $2,000 as the maximum to be loaned to any one person.

Action on this bill was interrupted by a message from the Governor.

A MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Was received by Mr. MONROE, Secretary of State, announcing the death of Ex-Governor ROBERT P. LETCHER: ordered to be printed.

Under a suspension of the rules resolutions from the House immediately were taken up. [See them in another part of our paper.]

Mr. ANDREWS addressed the Senate in an appropriate and feeling address, in relation to the life and character of the deceased statesman, and in advocacy of the resolutions.

Messrs. ANDREWS, SIMPSON, READ, DENNY, JOHNSON, and GROVER.

And then the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, JAN. 28, 1861.

Prayer by the Rev. JOHN N. NORRIS, of the Episcopal Church.

The reading of the Journal of Saturday was dispensed with.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

The SPEAKER (Mr. MERIWETHER) asked to make an explanation. He complained of an article in the Louisville Democrat, and said:

I ask the unanimous consent of the House, to make brief, personal explanation—a favor which I never in my life asked before, and hope never to be under the necessity of asking again.

In a letter contained in the Louisville Democrat of the 26th instant, I find the following paragraphs:

"I received from the citizens of Jefferson county, a petition signed by some hundred and more names of the leading men, with the view to hand it to some member with the request that he should present it to the House, and have it read. As an act courtesy to our members, I placed it in the hands of Mr. Speaker Meriwether, with the request that it should be read. He deemed it proper not to act in accordance with that request, but moved that the petition be received, its reading dispensed with, and it be referred to the committee on Federal Relations. As it was the intention that the whole Legislature should hear the petition, and I have no wish to be blamed because many friends, whom I esteem, are not heard in the manner in which they asked, I here publish the petition."

"Why Mr. Meriwether did not read it—Why he did not tell how many names were signed to it—is a matter with which I have no concern whatever. It is between him and the signers. The course he took was perfectly legitimate, but I notice that all of the petitions—and there have been many sent in—have been read to the Legislature before reference, and the Jefferson county petitioners rightfully asked the same. To refer it without reading is expressly called 'smothering it.'"

It will be observed that it is charged that a petition was handed to me with a request to have it read, but that it was presented and referred without reading, that all other petitions have been read before reference, and to refer a petition without reading is expressly called smothering.

Now I have a distinct recollection that my young friend, who is the correspondent of the Democrat, handed to me a petition whilst I was in the chair, discharging my duties as Speaker of the House, and whispered to me, as I understood him, a request that I would read it myself. I asked him the purpose of the petition, and he answered for the Union; my reply was that I had no time to read it then, but would present it, have it referred, and read it afterwards, for the committee had the matter now under consideration, and was expected to report in a few days, to which I understood him to assent.

As to the assertion that all other petitions have been read to the House before being referred, I appeal to every member to say if this is not a mistake, out of the hundreds that have been presented during the session, if one has been read it has escaped my memory, and I would appeal to gentlemen to say, if when they present petitions and have them referred without reading, they regard this action as smothering. I particularly appeal to the member from Mercer, who has presented so many on the same subject, and whether he considers this course of action smothering; and I would remind him of the action of the House on this subject but a few days before I presented the petition in question, when the reading of one was asked for, and the whole House responded no, no. I have but pursued the almost universal course of other members in this case, and would have asked for the reading of the petition, had I understood such to be the wish of my young friend or the petitioners.

I am aware that the young gentleman who corresponds with the Democrat feels a heavy weight of responsibility resting on his shoulders in this great emergency, and particularly in undertaking to see that members discharge their duties properly; but in this instance I humbly submit that his great zeal has outrun his discretion, and when my young friend undertakes to direct and control the whole legislation of this State, I fear he has rather over-cropped himself. As to his effort to sow discord, dissension, or suspicion between my constituents and their representative, I would say that I have lived in that community for the last fifty-five years to but little purpose if he succeeds, and I have received many evidences of their confidence to fear it, therefore I would recommend to the young gentleman to use his paper for the more innocent amusement of constructing kites, in preference to assailing his oldest and best friends. In conclusion, I would suggest to my young friend in a spirit of kindness, for I have only the most kindly feelings towards him, that he correct the errors into which he has fallen, and thereby do justice both to himself and me; for great as the injustice in this instance is to me, it is much greater to himself.

Mr. WORD offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the superintendent of public instruction be requested to report to this House, as soon as practicable, the number and amount of school reports received by him since the annual reports of commissioners for 1860, under the provision of the act of the last Legislature, giving further time to report, that are unpaid, and what provision, if any, is made to pay the same.

Mr. THOMAS offered the following joint resolution, which lies one day on the table, viz:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the two Houses of the General Assembly adjourn sine die on the 1st day of February, 1861.

Mr. HUSBANDS offered the following joint resolutions, which lie one day on the table, viz:

WHEREAS, Having approved of the resolutions recently adopted by the Legislature of the State of Virginia, for the purpose of saving our Union from dissolution; and having appointed commissioners to meet the commissioners from other States at Washington City on the 4th day of February next, to aid in effecting that patriotic object:

1. Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That we repudiate the idea of forming a middle belt confederacy, composed of the border slave States and any number of free States.

2. Resolved further, That in the event of a final dissolution of this Confederacy that Kentucky looks alone to the South, and desires to form a Union with her sister slave States, based upon the same principles of our present Federal Constitution and such amendments as shall be deemed necessary for the complete protection of slave property in the States or territories.

3. Resolved further, That our commissioners appointed to meet at Washington on the 4th of February, regard themselves instructed, in their deliberations, not to act in contravention of the views indicated in those resolutions.

Mr. McELROY offered the following resolution, which was rejected, viz:

Resolved, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the propriety of repealing or suspending, for a limited time, all laws of this Commonwealth authorizing the holding of the several circuit, equity, quarterly, police judge or justices courts within this Commonwealth; and that said committee report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. GANAWAY offered the following joint resolution, which lies one day on the table, viz:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That whilst Kentucky is devoted to the Union of these States, both North and South, and does not intend doing anything to complicate or aggravate the disturbances that now hover over this Union; but, on the contrary, intend doing everything, and exhausting every possible means of bringing about an amicable adjustment of difficulties; but if all the remedies fail, we most solemnly declare that our interests, our sympathies, and our hearts, are with the southern States.

Mr. HUSBANDS offered the following joint resolution, which lies one day on the table, viz:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That in view of the meeting of commissioners at Washington City on the 4th of February, that we adjourn on the 31st of the present month to meet again on the 15th of February next, to then consider the course Kentucky should adopt in relation to her federal relations.

Mr. ALEXANDER offered the following preamble and joint resolution, which lies one day on the table, viz:

WHEREAS, By reference to official reports, we see that our treasury is almost exhausted; and fearing that its total depletion would result in the 'speedy precipitancy' of this General Assembly into an engine of 'coercive' oppression; therefore Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That when this House adjourn on the 4th of February next, it be sine die.

MOTION.

Mr. MACHEN moved that the resolution allowing the use of the Hall to speakers during the last week, be continued during the present week: adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor, by Mr. MONROE, Secretary of State, which is as follows, viz:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 28, 1861.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The Hon. ROBERT P. LETCHER died at his residence in this city on Thursday last. The funeral rites take place to-day. Although he was not, at the time of his death, officially connected with the government, yet his eminent services through a long public life—in the General Assembly, in the Congress of the United States, as an ambassador of our country at a foreign court, and as the Chief Magistrate of this Commonwealth—demand such an expression from the representative of the people as will be appropriate to the melancholy occasion. The grateful remembrance of the patriotic efforts of the faithful public servant is a distinguishing characteristic of our people; and a more suitable occasion for its manifestation cannot be afforded than that which has occurred by the departure, in our midst, of the venerable and patriotic statesman whose loss we all so deeply deplore.

B. MAGOFFIN.

After the message had been read, Mr. RODMAN offered the following resolutions, viz:

His Excellency, the Governor, having communicated to the General Assembly intelligence of the death of Hon. ROBT. P. LETCHER, late Governor of this Commonwealth:

Resolved, That it is with profound grief that the General Assembly has received this information. He was distinguished for his patriotism, his eminent public services, as a member of Congress, as Governor of Kentucky, and as a minister to Mexico; by his death Kentucky has been deprived of a citizen who filled the high offices conferred upon him by the people of Kentucky and the National Government, with eminent ability, and distinguished honor to his country.

Resolved, That the General Assembly will meet at the Capitol at 2 o'clock this evening, and in a body attend his funeral.

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House appoint twelve, and the Speaker of the Senate six pall bearers to attend his body to the grave.

Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That this House do now adjourn.

After feeling and eloquent tributes of respect had been paid to the memory of the deceased, by Messrs. RODMAN, UNDERWOOD, HITT, BUCKNER, MACHEN, WOLFE, and CLAY, the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The Speaker announced the following gentlemen pall bearers: Messrs. Underwood, Machen, Clay, McElroy, Buckner, Hodge, Rodman, Finn, F. Neel, D. P. White, Wolfe, and Burton.

And then the House adjourned.

CHILDREN'S TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is a sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and benefit and health to your infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, with confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the bowels, and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY the world in ALL CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE, YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. No genuine unless the fac simile of OURS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

The undersigned, President and Directors of the Company, have examined the report and exhibit of the New York Life Insurance Company for the half year ending July 1st, 1858, and being satisfied with its prosperous condition, cordially recommend it to the encouragement and support of the community.

The New York Life Insurance Company has been in existence fourteen years, its capital has attained the sum of $1,500,000.

We invite attention to the nature, objects, and advantages of Life Insurance, as set forth by this Institution.

It will be seen by the above statement that this Company is in a flourishing condition. Those desirous of information in regard to the subject of Life Insurance, would do well to call on the Local Agent of the above Company, who will give them any information that may be desired, or for reference apply to either member of the Local Board, all of whom are insured in this office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n' orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the haptonearies hand says hi to the man. "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hach 'an'?" says 'e. "Exceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'an 'eadache.

'eadache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention till too late to be remedied, and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headache, Anemia and Plethoria are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances coming on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and speedy remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGE.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, no, a bottle of Prepara Pills, —but I'm thinking 'an't just it neither; her perhaps y'll be ather knowing what it is. Ye see she's high dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same that relieved her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridge.—Och! sure now and you've sed it; here's the quarter, and give me the Pills, and don't be all day about it, aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected, as Constipation. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the evils of which it is the cause. Among the light evils of which Constipation is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Mania and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom.

Not unfrequently the disease named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that head-ache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.
